

BOUTOGRAPHIES

New European Photography

Call for entries

This festival is open to all European photographers and residing in Europe.

The criteria for selection by a jury of image professionals are artistic quality, originality and the coherence of an authorial vision.

The application fee is 23€.

NO THEME IS IMPOSED

DEADLINE

11/19/23

- The festival will pay for the accommodation of the selected photographers during the opening weekend.
- The festival takes care of the transport of the exhibitions of the photographers of the official selection.
- The festival helps with production through its partner Laboratoire Photon.
- The photographer must have the full right to exhibit his or her photographs.
- The festival does not accept entries via an agent.
- Photographers are responsible for their own travel expenses.

The organisers reserve the right to use the selected files, free of charge, for the promotion of the Boutographies. In the event of a serious event, the event may be cancelled without prior notice and without any compensation being due. Submission of a file to the Boutographies implies acceptance of these rules.

THE APPLICATION

Each application must present
A series of 10 to 20 photographs
A text presenting the work submitted
A brief CV + contact details and civil status

INSCRIPTION

<https://www.boutographies.com/en/call-for-entries>